

Dear God,

Thank you for giving us courage and for all the little things in our lives, like a tiny mustard seed.
Help us remember that small things can grow into big and wonderful things, just like our honesty, kindness, and forgiveness.

When we feel small or unsure, remind us that with your love, we can do great things.

Help us believe in ourselves and share friendship and joy with everyone around us.

Amen.

